Parcel Post is 25 Years Old

To observe the "Silver Jubilee of Parcel Post" service, Postmaster Earl Conner is now calling local postal patrons' attention to the wider use of this service. The Jubilee will extend through November. Parcel Post was inaugurated Jan. 1, 1913. Today it is the second largest contributor to postal revenues and the number of pieces handled annually exceeds the total mail of all classes of many foreign countries.

All local postal employees are thoroughly familiar with the fundamentals of Parcel Post service and will gladly give information on this "from anywhere to everywhere" mailing facility. Every effort will be made to increase the use of this service during the month and Postmaster Conner declared he will be delighted to "get showed" with parcels for mailing from now on.

Thrift in Salvation Army TORONTO, Ont. (U.P.)—A sewing machine and a seal coat were left to the Salvation Army here in the wills of two women.

Tartar Bees Fall Before Banning; Gauchito Lights Lose

Running wild every quarter, Banning's Class B team whitewashed the Torrance lightweights, 47 to 0, in a Marine league tussle last Thursday afternoon on the winning team's field. The Tartar Bees, hampered by lack of material, were completely dominated by the Banning Bees.

The local lightweights are meeting Narbonne's Class B team on the Torrance field this afternoon.

By hitting vulnerable spots in the wings and executing a series of baffling reverses, the San Pedro Bees crushed the Narbonne lightweights, 38 to 0, at San Pedro last Thursday.

The junior Pirates are playing Gardena's Bees at the port city this afternoon.

Monday night the local lightweights played a practice game with Long Beach Poly's Bees. The visitors won, 6 to 0, with the Tartar lights just failing to tie the score as the game popped. The center had not passed the ball for this second drive when the game ended, however.

Frolic Features Fun for Everyone

Spectators forgot to doff hats or caps or stand at attention when the flags went by. Sure, it was just an oversight and no disrespect was intended, but Old Glory does not deserve the slight however unintentional.

Mayfair Creamery was Frolic-conscious in a big way. In addition to stocking a booth it had a comic entry and its trucks in the parade. Ed Brunner—looking like a Swiss yodeler—tried his best to milk a calf on a bouncing truck. Maybe that's the way they make whipped cream.

Big Jack Barrington handled his team in a masterful fashion while trundling the Woman's club entry in Gay Nineties garb thru the streets.

An impromptu act that took the stage at intervals was "Munson and Maberly in African cavortings." O. Munson pounded the piano while bearded Alfred Maberly hopped about as spry as a jitterbug.

Those North Torrance youngsters in their blue bolero jackets showed exceptional talent as musicians. Their "Over the Waves" number was a nostalgic reminder of "the good old days."

And didn't the Royal Neighbors' kitchen hand put on a brave display of uniforms (with cloths for braids and utensils for instruments)? And they could really play those things!

Business was good at "Georgie Mort's" sidewalk tontorial parlor—when there was a strong-arm guy nearby to plow victims in the chair.

What a cute baby doll Gaston Arty was in the parade. Yes, that was Gaston riding on

STATE PICNICS

MISSOURI . . . Every Missourian is included in the call to attend the annual picnic reunion in Sycamore Grove Park, Los Angeles, Saturday, Nov. 12, with basket dinners at noon. A brief program of song and oratory will follow.

Gets Letter From Hell WATKINS GLENS, N. Y. (U.P.)—Charles Haight is the proud owner of a letter from Hell. Haight, a philatelist, mailed a letter to the postmaster of Hell, Norway. The postmaster cancelled it and sent it back.

the top of his La Mode Furniture truck.

Wonder how many hours of work that Needlework exhibit represented in all the fine handicraft of its displays?

They say the Boy Scouts collected night on a century note from fines levied at their Kangaroo Court. You paid and paid and paid.

Saturday morning wasn't very old before those ubiquitous "ex-service" men with their little flag lapel pins were flocking into Torrance to button-hole everyone for that tiresome "touch."

Too bad that squad of Ingledwood motorcycle riders didn't have room enough on the streets to put their iron ponies thru their bag of tricks. That group is really good.

How good a driver are you? Did you take the tests that were given in the Frolic headquarters by the Division of Drivers Licenses of the state Motor Vehicle department? They were very interesting.

Guides for the boys' five-mile bicycle race were Paul Harestad of 2010 Gramercy, state Class C track title-holder, and Gene Bordeaux, 2116 Gramercy, who is one of the better Class C bike-riders of the Long Beach Cycling club.

Two Added to Loan Directorate

Two new directors were elected to the board of the Torrance Mutual Building and Loan Association Monday morning. They were Charles V. Jones, well-known lumberman, and Fay L. Parks, long-time plumber here. Other members of the board are Torrance C. Welch, J. Wallace Post, Henry March, C. T. Rippey and W. E. Bowen.

Fem Grid Fan Wins Contest

For the second week in succession, a feminine grid fan showed male contenders in the Herald's Football Contest, how to predict scores of last Saturday's games. The week's winner of two tickets to the U.S.C.-California game on Saturday was Evelyn Warning of 803 Cota, whose 267 points were the lowest—and therefore the best—of the contest.

Another opportunity for the best grid prophet in Torrance or vicinity to receive a couple of dollars offered for a big game in Los Angeles Saturday opened today with the fifth week's score picking event. Last week Mrs. Dorothy Prince declined to accept the tickets to the U.C.L.A.-Stanford game because her husband, Leslie Prince, had previously won a pair in The Herald's contest. The past champions were then delivered to T. L. Masterson, 1315-Sartori, who had the second lowest score.

In second place this week was John Agapito, 804 Anapola, with 292. Roy R. Hayes, 1819½ Andree, was third with 293 and Louis Briganti, 911 Anapola, was fourth with 294. Nearly every contestant—including the first five—failed to tab the Missouri win over Nebraska. Kansas' victory over Kansas State and Centenary's win over Loyola.

Entry blanks for this week's contest may be obtained from any store whose advertisement appears on the Football page and these must be brought or mailed to The Herald office, 1336 El Prado, not later than 10 o'clock next Saturday morning to be judged.

CLOSE CONTACT Give your boy or girl a subscription to The Herald (six months, $1) while they are away at school.
